

Refugee Worksheet

Think about things that refugees can take with them from their home countries that are not physical objects, such as traditions, faith, or celebrations. Draw the traditions or festivals you would take with you if you were immigrating to a new country. Think about which parts of your culture or heritage you would want to bring.